

THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF THE NAVY
(RESEARCH, DEVELOPMENT AND ACQUISITION)
1000 NAVY PENTAGON
WASHINGTON DC 20350-1000

OCT 2 2013

The Honorable Robert Menendez
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510-3001

Dear Senator Menendez:

Thank you for your letter of September 13, 2013, to the Secretary of the Navy expressing your strong support for the Navy's Air and Missile Defense Radar (AMDR) program. I am responding on behalf of Secretary Mabus.

I agree with you that the award of the AMDR program contract will be critical to maintaining our national security and will significantly strengthen our naval forces as they face both current and emerging threats. The Navy's current competitive solicitation for the AMDR program is a key factor in ensuring this capability is acquired in the most cost effective manner. I want to assure you the Navy is conducting a detailed evaluation of all factors, including cost, per the evaluation criteria set forth in the solicitation.

Thank you for your continued support of the Navy. I appreciate your taking the time to share your thoughts on the AMDR program. A similar response is also being provided to each of your colleagues. Please let me know if I can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,
